Respect the Game

- Respect the rules by teaching athletes to play fair.
- Respect the important leadership role you play within the dynamics of high school athletics. Fans, players and parents mimic your behavior.
- Respect officials for their efforts in keeping the game within a set of boundaries. Recognize that a neutral observer of an event will not always agree with your perception.
- Respect the language you use in communicating with athletes. Would you talk to their parents the same way?
- Respect that high school athletics is based on an education model. As teachers you are entrusted with impressionable young people. Your responsibility to your athletes begins by respecting every player and his or her set of life experiences.

Never Forget To Respect the Game
